RACE

Dir: Abbas & Mastan

Cast: Saif Ali Khan, Akshaye Khanna, Bipasha Basu, Katrina Kaif, Anil Kapoor and Sameera Reddy.

Ranvir (Saif Ali Khan) and Rajiv (Akshaye Khanna) are half brothers who own a huge stud farm in Durban, South Africa. They breed horses on their ranch house and are also the biggest bookies in the horse racing circuit.

Ranvir the elder of the two, is known to be a very shrewd man. He is very aggressive, and is always on the move. His half brother, Rajiv on the other hand, is very laid back, and is also a chronic alcoholic.

Sophia (Katrina Kaif) is Ranvir's personal secretary and is in love with him. Ranvir is totally unaware of her feeling and regards her adoration as efficiency. Shaina (Bipasha Basu) is an upcoming Indian ramp model in Durban. She and Ranvir share a great relationship, which is just on the borderline of love.

RD (Anil Kapoor) is a flamboyant police detective who lives by his wits. He has a strange addiction to fruits. He provides the film with witty humor and a very intriguing murder investigation. Mini (Sameera Reddy) is RD's personal assistant. She is not very bright.

Shaina loves Ranvir but through a twist of fate gets married to his younger brother Rajiv. When she discovers that Rajiv is a chronic alcoholic, her world is shattered. Ranvir too is disturbed as he has sacrificed his love for his younger brother. Rajiv had promised him that if he got married to Shaina, he would stop drinking. Rajiv did not keep his word. Ranvir and Shaina start getting closer and the plot starts to thicken. A murder is committed, a contract killing is issued, double crossings become the order of the day, betrayals are executed at the blink of an eye, and a point comes where you cannot pick the good from the bad, the evil from the righteous and the tame from the wild.

A back drop of horse racing, the beautiful locales of Durban and edge of the seat excitement are the crux of Race.
