Pratima: Reflection, is an evening-length work that explores the relationship between the dancer and her dance as she seeks to find an image of herself through the essential truths – of Creation, Contemplation, Separation and the Duality of the human spirit.

Choreographed by Surupa Sen, the piece is performed by an ensemble of female dancers to an original score. The language of the show is Odissi, the oldest of India's classical dance forms.

Pratima: Reflection has been commissioned by the Joyce Theater's Stephen and Cathy Weinroth Fund for New Work. <http://www.nrityagram.org/>

Ferguson Hall April, 8th, 2009

Price: Regularly priced tickets start at $29.50
