Well ... kyunki, Vidya hates to be compared to Bebo. While the character Vidya plays in Kismet Konnection bears a resemblance to Bebo's character of Geet in Jab we Met, Vidya seriously hates it when people try mentioning this similarity to her. "You may have found similarities in our characters but I have played my role in quite a different way. Vidya has been heard to have said, "Priya is very different from Geet and they cannot be compared". OK girl, we'll try and not make this mistake again!

The King of Singhs, Akshay Kumar says that he always wanted to play a Sikh character, and that his wish has finally come true with Vipul Shah's flick, Singh Is Kinng. According to Akki, the Sikhs are one of the most intelligent and brave sections of the Indian community and that is why our man wanted to play a true Sikh with the turban to boot to raise the respect and importance of the community all over the world. Even the title of the movie Singh Is Kinng, was suggested by the actor, which he says he saw written behind a truck - OK, so that is where we should be turning to for inspiration now! With an act like this, Akki might just beat the popularity of Sunny Paaji in Punjab.

Now before you jump to any conclusions and start on a family tree for Harman and Priyanka, this news is about an on screen role and nothing off screen. Priyanka Chopra has now agreed to become pregnant in Madhur Bhandrkar's flick Fashion. The lady had initially not agreed to this modification which wasn't mentioned in the script, as she thought that this would make her role too bold. The actress has now shown her professionalism and has agreed to do it - she DOES realize that she won't actually become pregnant if she does this role, right?
