

12 Cover Story: MOZART OF ASIA: A R RAHMAN

A R Rahman, the Mozart of Asia, needs no introduction. He is as well known in India as he is all over the world and his appeal lies in the way he blends popular music into classical and remains true to music at its very core.

16 HERBS TO RESTORE YOUR HEALTH

Various herbs may be put together and used to bring out their antiseptic properties when fevers are prolonged and are of unknown origin. Holy basil (tulsi) - basil has a volatile oil like camphor and has antiseptic and healing properties.

14 TEST CRICKET: An Epitaph

I believe that Test Cricket is at death's doorsteps. I am currently watching the first Test match between England and South Africa. It is the 5th day and the match is teetering towards a tame draw.

18 REPAIR YOUR SKIN FROM SUN DAMAGE

We live in one of the country's hottest States and the sun can play havoc with our skin. No matter how many precautions we take, there can still be damage to our skin that requires that extra little bit of attention.

24 BOLLYWOOD Singh is Kinng

The King of Singhs, Akshay Kumar, says that he always wanted to play a Sikh character, and that his wish has finally come true with Vipul Shah's flick, Singh Is Kinng. According to Akki, the Sikhs are one of the most intelligent and brave ...

26 DINING IN FORMAL COMPANY

Ever wondered what they teach in 'finishing schools' as far as table manners go? How about how to attack your food if an interview has been planned over a meal? Office lunches, client dinners - ever been a challenge?
