The Gujarati Association of Manasota is taking donations to help the people of Haiti. Please take a few minutes of your time to take stock of the goodness in your life, be thankful, and then make a contribution to those who would be happy with much less.

Please send a check for Haiti relief in care of Gujarati Association of Manasota. Note "for Haiti Earthquake Fund" in the memo line. This will be your receipt for tax purposes (EIN#56-2637591) All collected funds will be sent to the Red Cross International Response Fund.

Mail checks to the following address By February 28th 2010:

Gujarati Association, c/o Pankaj Bhatt, 2431 28th Ave E, Palmetto, FL 34221

Thank you for your generosity.

PS. Please direct your friends and family to our website if they wish to donate.

MYSTIC SADHGURU SELECTS TAMPA BAY FOR FIRST-OF-ITS-KIND MEDITATION EVENT

World-rekknown yogi, living master and mystic, Sadhguru Jaggi Vasudev, has selected Tampa for the site of his first, large-scale meditation event in the United States. Coming to the USF-Tampa campus in March, the outdoor event, "Mystic Eye: Wisdom, Meditation and Bliss," is anticipated to attract 2,000 people seeking spiritual knowledge and blissful meditation.

The two-part event, coordinated by Sadhguru's Isha Foundation volunteers, will be held Sat., March 27, 6:00 - 9:00 p.m., and Sun., March 28, 2009, 5:00 - 10:00 p.m., at the USF Soccer Stadium, located at 4202 E. Fowler Ave. in Tampa. On-site registration and a reception will begin at 4:45 p.m. on Sat., although pre-registration is strongly recommended due to limited seating. Suitable for adults of any age, participation requires no prior experience with meditation to be impactful. The program cost is $250, with discounts available to "early birds," students, seniors, couples and groups.
